Rhodes Scholarship applicants are required to obtain an institutional endorsement before applying to the Rhodes Trust. The UC Berkeley campus faculty selection committee (4-7 faculty) makes endorsement decisions for the University.

“I attest that this personal statement is my own work and is wholly truthful. Neither it nor any earlier draft has been edited by anyone other than me, nor has anyone else reviewed it to provide me with suggestions to improve it. I understand that any such editing or review would disqualify my application.”

No application will be considered if the applicant does not make such a certification. This attestation does not count in the personal statement word limit
- * List of principle activities
- * Transcripts from all colleges and universities you have attended. (Unofficial copies are acceptable for the campus selection process)
- * A minimum of five, but not more than eight, letters of recommendation. At least four of these must be from persons whom you have received undergraduate or graduate instruction, and at least one letter (the fifth) must speak to your character. All letters MUST be sent via e-mail to Alicia Hayes at ourscholarships@berkeley.edu by the campus deadline.
